

Hello,

The 45th Cambridge Beer Festival takes place from 21–26 May, and we hope you're looking forward to it as much as we are. This is one of the country's biggest festivals, enjoyed by thousands of visitors each year. But none of it would happen if it weren't for the 300 or so volunteers who put it together, run it, and tidy it all up again afterwards.

Many volunteers come back year on year, some even travelling from other parts of the country and beyond. We come for the camaraderie, for the sense of achievement, and to learn more about the great products we sell. For a first-hand account, read about our friends Mark and Angela's experiences of volunteering at the festival.

Volunteering is very flexible. You don't have to commit to a minimum amount of time. You don't need any experience. Just show up with a sense of enthusiasm and you will be welcomed, supported, and well taken care of.

Read more about volunteering on our website, or sign up here.

See you on Jesus Green!

Clare Kenward

Cambridge Beer Festival Volunteering Officer